UTICA, NY – Players of Utica, continues the 2009-2010 season with Richard O'Brien's hugely popular cult-classic, THE ROCKY HORROR SHOW; a rock-musical fantasy featuring a cast of 25 talented local actors and actresses from all over Central NY.

The Rocky Horror Show is a long-running British stage musical that opened in London on 19 June 1973. The play was adapted as the 1975 film, The Rocky Horror Picture Show and has since been escalated to "cult" status by fans world-wide. Audience members have been known to (and even expected to!) participate and dress in character for the productions.

This bizarre stage show-turned-cult film introduces two clean cut kids, Brad Majors and Janet Weiss, who run into car trouble and seek help at the site of light down the road. Little do they know the light is coming from the place where Dr. Frank N. Furter is in the midst of one of his maniacal experiments. The play is a rock musical, a spoof of science fiction movies, and a strange story of seduction and sexual confusion. This production contains mature themes and content.

So dig out your fishnet stockings, stiletto heels and head on down to see it ALIVE and on stage at Utica College's Strebel Auditorium!
