The NEW Players of Utica Theatre
1108 State Street, Utica

UTICA, NY – Players of Utica, New York State’s oldest, continuously producing community theatre, is holding open auditions for adults and children, ages 5 and up, to be a part of their Holiday Extravaganza – SCROOGE! Back stage assistance is needed as well for set construction, design, props, costumes and make-up. Anyone interested in volunteering to be a part of the production is encouraged to attend the open auditions or call Players of Utica at 315.724.7624.

SCROOGE boasts a cast of nearly 200 on the beautiful renovated stage of the Stanley Center for the Arts. The performance will be presented on December 18 & 19, 2009 to the public with a special school performance on December 17, 2009. This Players of Utica production is being directed by Peter Loftus for the 27th year.

All are welcome to be a part of the magic that is the Players of Utica production of SCROOGE.
